

UPARENT AMBASSADOR

CALLING U PARENTS

If you're looking for an opportunity to engage with your student's University beyond philanthropic giving and connect with the Utah parents within your area, this is the place for you!

VISION

We envision each parent can create a community to experience the University of Utah together. Build U community where you live with other like minded parents. Volunteer for events, calls, career guidance, and more!

MISSION

The mission of U Parent Ambassadors at the University of Utah is to foster a collaborative community of out-of-state and local parents dedicated to supporting the educational experience and overall well-being of our students by volunteering and socializing.
